

Paul & Virginie Hotel

"A tribute to a great love story"

This charming hotel pays tribute to the legendary young couple of the tragic love story by Bernardin de St. Pierre, based on historic events in 1744.

Stone walls, thatched roofs and wood work typify the natural charm and ambience of the Paul & Virginie Hotel situated in the sleepy fisherman's village of Grand Gaube on the north-east corner of the island. Located at the shore of a turquoise ocean, by a white sandy coral beach and a tropical garden, the Paul & Virginie Hotel provides the legendary setting for your dreamy holidays.

All of its rooms beautifully décor colonial style and appointed with individual air-conditioning; direct dial telephone, television with video channels etc. the rooms are sea-facing and looking Swimming pool out onto the northern islands. Both two swimming pools featured by the hotel are seaside forming part of the view; the main perfect for families with children are located front of the room accommodation. The other pool forms part of the charm and ambience to the restaurant and main bar.

The beach restaurant "La Trinquette" and the main restaurant "Isle de France" which overlooks the pool area, serve Mauritian as well as international cuisine. Two bars offer refreshments, light snacks and exotic cocktails at sunset. To accommodate families, the hotel provides a mini club for the children and interconnection rooms. A babysitting service is available on request.

A wide range of leisure activities is available free of charge: one floodlit tennis court, beach volley ball, French bowling, kayaks, windsurfing etc. Residents of the Paul & Virginie Hotel have free access to all land and water facilities available at the sister hotels Veranda, Marina Club & Resort, Coin de Mire and Le Palmar Beach Resort.
