

Le Sakoa Hotel

"Happiness revisited!"

In the north of Mauritius, by the famous beach of Trou aux Biches, lays nestled in a small beautiful tropical garden, an array of thatch roof houses and bungalows: The Sakoa Hotel, with its very attentive and a level of personal service. Together with the beautiful surroundings, this place makes you feel like you touched on happiness revisited.

The restaurant offers a great view; the bar and the rooms are gathered cosily around the swimming pool. Although the number of rooms is rather small, their size certainly isn't. Large is also the effort of making the guests feel at home. And the nice white sand beach that joins the blue of the Indian Ocean like a huge white and blue carpet into which the setting sun creates beautiful patterns of red and gold.

The hotels standard offer is Bed & Breakfast so the guests are free to prepare lunch and dinner in the fully equipped kitchen which is a part of their hotel room enjoy a meal at one of the many local restaurants or choose from the hotel's menu of the day.

Whatever type of vacation you wish to spend in Mauritius, you will certainly enjoy to return to these very spacious and comfortable rooms which are furnished with tropical patterns and designs and furniture in cane and wood: A little haven that will contribute to your memorable stay on the island.
